Short-Term Ministry - Application for Financial Support

(One week to six months)

We are excited about your desire to go on a short-term mission trip. We believe that these kinds of trips can be hugely beneficial to your discipleship journey and to those that you minister to. We are all partners in ministry, so as you go and minister you are strengthening our vision of being arm-in-arm to extend God's kingdom here on earth.

We want to encourage you to return this application by the specified date. Due to the heavy administrative load, we will only be processing applications that we receive by the due date. Once we have received your application, the team will process and get back to you regarding our response.
